

DISCLAIMER

Please note these important considerations when viewing the information and product samples on the KR Leather & Fabrics website.

The ability of your monitor and printer to accurately reproduce colors can be influenced by gamma, brightness, and contrast settings, your video display card, and many other factors beyond our control. Therefore, we cannot guarantee that the product colors you see displayed on this site are perfectly accurate. Please contact our customer service to have samples mailed to your business, or request more information online.

Please note that the color samples shown on our color cards may not precisely reflect actual color. As in all color products, hide to hide variation may be experienced. Customers are strongly encouraged to obtain samples by prior to final selection. The selection of colors is subject to change without notice.

Due to the tanning process of cultured leather, variation in shades and grain are inherent. If you are ordering for a large project, we urge you to order all that is needed for that project at the same time to ensure they come from the same lot. We also cannot assure that the same color will be available at any given time. The color cards can be updated at any time based on availability and demand.
